DAUGHTER OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

The Virginia State Convention of the D. A. R. resumed its session at ten o'clock this morning with the State Regent, Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, presiding.

After prayer by Mrs. Wm. A. Smoot, the minutes of the previous day were read and accepted as correct, with thanks to the secretary for her interesting notes.

The report of one of the chapters, which had not been read, was then read.

The amendments not acted on were then taken up.

The present State Regent was unanimously re-elected.

The Mount Vernon Chapter offered the suggestion that all chapters interested in preserving the minutia of the Washington lodge, of Fredericksburg, which is rapidly dropping to pieces.

A vote of thanks was extended to Miss Powell, the secretary, for her efficient services.

A motion was made, seconded and unanimously carried that the Mt. Vernon Chapter be thanked for their hospitality.

An invitation was received from the Alexandria chapter to hold the next conference in Charlottesville, and the Mount Vernon chapter requested the privilege of entertaining the conference one day. It was unanimously accepted.

At one o'clock the conference adjourned.

The remainder of the stay of the ladies in this city will be given over to pleasure. This evening they enjoyed a drive to the Theological Seminary and were later entertained at a tea by Miss Wm. at Seminary Hill. Tonight the ladies will be entertained by Mrs. W. A. Smoot at Colross.

Tomorrow the ladies will be the guests of Mrs. H. and during a visit to Mount Vernon. On their return they will, in the evening, visit the Carlyle House and the Washington Lodge and at 8 o'clock at night will be entertained at an organ recital at Christ Church.

Many Alexandria homes are hospitably opened and all the delegates are entertained by their friends in private families and in the most delightful manner.

RECEPTION.

Last night at Old Fellows' Hall was held the reception given by the Mt. Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in honor of the Virginia State Convention. The hall was converted into a thing of beauty, presenting a veritable scene from fairyland, with its palms, flowers and many colored lights. Conspicuous among the decorations was the insignia of the order, a spinning wheel of blue and white formed of electric lights. The guests appeared in full evening dress, the costumes of the ladies being especially handsome.

The reception committee received their guests on a dias in the western end of the hall, the committee being composed of Mrs. Robert W. Hunter, Regent Mount Vernon chapter; Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, Virginia State Regent; Miss Eleanor Washington Howard, Vice President General in charge of organization; Mrs. Albert Tuttle, Vice President General of Virginia; Miss Hetzel, Registrar General; Mrs. Seymour, Historian General; Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry, Corresponding Secretary General; Mrs. George Uhler, Vice Regent Mount Vernon Chapter; Mrs. Dabney Herndon, Secretary Mount Vernon Chapter; Mrs. S. L. Monroe, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Vernon Chapter; Miss Margaret Yowell Smith, acting Historian, Mount Vernon Chapter, and Miss Nellie Wilson, supper committee.

During the evening refreshments were served by some of Alexandria's prettiest girls who, with their powder and patches, added not a little to the beauty of the occasion. An orchestra entertained the evening by music.

Altogether the occasion was one of which the ladies of Mount Vernon Chapter have every reason to be proud, and one which will long be remembered by all so fortunate as to be present.

THE D. A. R. RECEPTION.—The public spirit of Alexandria was never more prominently exemplified than on last night at the brilliant reception accorded to the conference of the Virginia Regent, D. A. HALLOWEEN.—A large portion of the young element of this community had a hilarious time last night, celebrating Halloween. INJURED BY MACHINERY.

Between seven and eight o'clock this morning while the tugboat Camella was on her way to this city from Washington, the engineer, Mr. W. B. Kersey, had occasion to examine some part of the engine. While in the act of doing so the fireman, who had misunderstood a signal, started the engine in an opposite direction, causing some part of the machinery to strike the engineer on the head, inflicting some ugly cuts. The engine was stopped and another tugboat on which was Capt. Mat. Kersey, father of the young man, was signalled.
